Proposed Cancellation in respect of Preference Shares

Notice of Advisory Vote Meeting

It is important that this Advisory Vote Circular is read as a whole and together with the Tender Offer Memorandum and the Shareholder Circular. Your attention is drawn to the letter from George Culmer, the Chair of Aviva plc, which is set out in Part I (Letter from the Chair of Aviva plc) of this Advisory Vote Circular and which contains a unanimous recommendation from the Board that you vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution. This Advisory Vote Circular explains why the Advisory Vote Meeting is being convened and provides details on how to participate and vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting. The Advisory Vote Resolution will be voted on by taking a poll.

This document is dated 11 March 2025.

A notice convening an advisory meeting of the preference shareholders of Aviva plc ("Aviva") to be held at Events @ No 6, 6 Alie Street, London, E1 8QT, with facilities to participate electronically, on 15 April 2025 at 11.00 a.m. is set out at the end of this Advisory Vote Circular.

Aviva has arranged for preference shareholders to attend and participate in the Advisory Vote Meeting both physically at Events @ No 6, 6 Alie Street, London, E1 8QT and electronically.

Preference shareholders planning to attend electronically should refer to pages 32 to 36 of this Advisory Vote Circular, where they will find details of the electronic attendance arrangements, including how to vote online and ask questions during the Advisory Vote Meeting using the Computershare system.

We will provide information on our website, www.aviva.com/investors/shareholder-meetings, regarding any changes to the Advisory Vote Meeting arrangements, and we encourage preference shareholders to check regularly for updates. We also ask preference shareholders to use the tick box on the relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form to confirm if they intend to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting in person at Events @ No 6, 6 Alie Street, London, E1 8QT to help us plan appropriately. Unfortunately, guests of preference shareholders, other than carers, will not be permitted to attend.

The Preference Shareholder Paper Form available to holders of Aviva Preference Shares which are in certificated form (that is, not in CREST) is different to the Preference Shareholder Paper Form available to holders of Aviva Preference Shares in CREST. Holders of Aviva Preference Shares which are in certificated form and who are in a restricted jurisdiction and unable to participate in the Tender Offer will receive the Preference Shareholder Paper Form available to holders of Aviva Preference Shares in CREST.

Whether or not you intend to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting in person (physically or electronically), preference shareholders are encouraged to take an active part in voting on the Advisory Vote Resolution to be proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting. Preference shareholders can do so in advance of the Advisory Vote Meeting by submitting a Tender Instruction or Proxy Instruction online or by completing and returning the relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form by post.

Electronic proxy appointment is available for those preference shareholders who hold their shares in CREST, through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service or, for institutional investors, by appointing a proxy electronically via Proxymity. Further details are set out in the notes to the Notice of Advisory Vote Meeting.

A Preference Shareholder Paper Form is enclosed with hard copies of the Shareholder Circular. The Preference Shareholder Paper Form available to holders of Aviva Preference Shares which are in certificated form (that is, not in CREST) is different to the Preference Shareholder Paper Form available to holders of Aviva Preference Shares in CREST. The relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form should be completed in accordance with the instructions provided and returned either using the pre-paid envelope enclosed with hard copies of the Shareholder Circular sent to preference shareholders, or to the Receiving Agent and Registrar, Computershare Investor Services PLC, at The Pavilions, Bridgwater Road, Bristol, BS99 6AH.

Whether you vote electronically or by post, you should complete your instruction as soon as possible but, in any event, so as to be received no later than 12 noon on 11 April 2025 (or, if the General Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours (excluding any non-Business Days) before the time of the adjourned General Meeting).

Preference shareholders who submit a valid Tender Instruction or Proxy Instruction appointing the Chair as their proxy to vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the General Meeting (whether the vote is for or against the Advisory Vote Resolution and Cancellation Resolution) will be eligible to receive a Voting Fee as detailed further in this Advisory Vote Circular.

Preference shareholders who participate in the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting by any other means including by: (i) attending in person or via the Virtual Meeting Platform; or (ii) making other arrangements to be represented or vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting shall not be entitled to the Voting Fee irrespective of whether they vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution and Cancellation Resolution. For further details on the Voting Fee, Tender Instruction or Proxy Instruction please refer to the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Completion and return of a Tender Instruction or Proxy Instruction will not preclude you from attending and voting in person (physically or electronically) at the Advisory Vote Meeting if you wish to do so and are so entitled. However, please note that you will no longer be eligible to receive the Voting Fee should you attend, even if you vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

At the Advisory Vote Meeting, the votes will be taken by poll. The results of the polls will be announced to the London Stock Exchange as soon as practicable and will appear on Aviva's website, www.aviva.com/investors/aviva-regulatory-announcements/.

No person has been authorised to give any information or make any representations other than those contained in this Advisory Vote Circular and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied on as having been so authorised. Dear Preference Shareholder,

PROPOSAL CONCERNING CANCELLATION / TENDER OF PREFERENCE SHARES OF AVIVA PLC (“AVIVA”) AND GENERAL ACCIDENT PLC

Introduction

It is important that you read this Advisory Vote Circular together with the Tender Offer Memorandum and the Shareholder Circular which have been made available to you.

Your Board is seeking the approval of shareholders for the cancellation of Aviva’s 8.375% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1 each (the “8.375% Preference Shares”) and 8.750% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1 each (the “8.750% Preference Shares” and, together with the 8.375% Preference Shares, the “Aviva Preference Shares”) (the “Cancellation”). If successful, the Cancellation would have the effect of retiring 100% of the Aviva Preference Shares.

If the Cancellation does not receive the necessary support of our shareholders (voting requirements are summarised in Annex D (Information on the Advisory Vote Meeting and shareholder actions) to this letter) or is otherwise not implemented, eligible holders of the Aviva Preference Shares are being invited in parallel to tender any or all of their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase on the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum which has been provided to them (the “Tender Offer”). The Tender Offer requires the approval of Aviva’s ordinary shareholders.

Your Board considers that the parallel Cancellation and Tender Offer (the “Aviva Transaction”) is the best structure to deliver a successful outcome for all shareholders.

Alongside the Aviva Transaction, the board of General Accident plc (“GA”), a subsidiary of Aviva wholly owned by the Group, is also seeking to undertake a similar transaction (the “GA Transaction”) for the cancellation and tender offer of GA’s 7.875% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1 each (the “7.875% GA Preference Shares”) and 8.875% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1 each (the “8.875% GA Preference Shares” and, together with the 7.875% GA Preference Shares, the “GA Preference Shares”). If you also hold GA Preference Shares (together with the Aviva Preference Shares, the “Preference Shares”), separate circulars which set out details on the GA Transaction are being made available to you. Please contact Computershare if you have not received these documents (please see <https://clients.dfkingltd.com/Aviva> for contact details).

As the Aviva Transaction and GA Transaction are separate proposals, the outcome of the Aviva Transaction is not conditional on the GA Transaction being approved (and vice versa).

The purpose of this letter is to explain the reasons for the Aviva Transaction and the GA Transaction (together the “Transactions”) and to explain why the Board considers this to be in the best interests of Aviva, GA and their respective preference shareholders. This Advisory Vote Circular also explains why the Advisory Vote Meeting is being convened and provides details on how to participate and vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

Reasons for the Transactions

The Preference Shares were issued in support of the requirement for financial firms to maintain a minimum level of capital reserves that were designed to absorb losses in times of financial stress while protecting policyholders and enabling the financial institution to continue as a viable business. Since the Preference Shares were issued in 1992 and 1993, the rules which stipulate the requirements for eligible capital issuance have changed and, as a result, the Preference Shares will cease to provide any capital benefit for the Group with effect from 1 January 2026.

As a result, the Board together with the board of GA has determined that the Preference Shares represent an inefficient form of funding which no longer serves the purpose for which they were intended. Accordingly, each of Aviva and GA is proposing steps to remove as many of the Preference Shares as possible.

The Transactions have been notified to the Prudential Regulation Authority, which has confirmed its approval of the Transactions, and the Financial Conduct Authority.

Amounts payable to preference shareholders pursuant to the Transactions

The following table summarises the consideration which is being offered to preference shareholders of each of Aviva and GA on a series-by-series basis. This is a summary of the more detailed breakdown contained in Annex B (Further information concerning the Cancellation) and Annex C (Further information concerning the Tender Offer) to this letter.

Issuer	Coupon	Cancellation Price	Tender Offer Price	Accrued Dividend Amount
Aviva	8.375%	£1.44 per 8.375% Preference Share (In addition, preference shareholders may be eligible to receive a voting fee of £0.02 per 8.375% Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 8.375% Preference Share) – see page 13 of this Circular for further details)	£1.44 per 8.375% Preference Share	See pages 13 and 14 of this Circular. As the Cancellation and Tender Offer have different settlement dates, the Accrued Dividend Amount will differ depending on whether the Cancellation or Tender Offer is implemented.
	8.750%	£1.50 per 8.750% Preference Share (In addition, preference shareholders may be eligible to receive a voting fee of £0.02 per 8.750% Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 8.750% Preference Share) – see page 13 of this Circular for further details)	£1.50 per 8.750% Preference Share
GA	7.875%	£1.35 per 7.875% GA Preference Share (In addition, preference shareholders may be eligible to receive a voting fee of £0.02 per 7.875% GA Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 7.875% GA Preference Share) – see separate circulars addressed to GA shareholders for further details)	£1.35 per 7.875% GA Preference Share	See separate circulars addressed to GA shareholders
	8.875%	£1.52 per 8.875% GA Preference Share (In addition, preference shareholders may be eligible to receive a voting fee of £0.02 per 8.875% GA Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 8.875% GA Preference Share) – see separate circulars addressed to GA shareholders for further details)	£1.52 per 8.875% GA Preference Share

Why should preference shareholders support the Transactions?

The Board believes the Transactions represent a fair and compelling proposition for preference shareholders by offering liquidity at a premium to market prices in return for the Preference Shares.

In determining the pricing offered to preference shareholders, each of Aviva and GA has taken into account: (i) the current secondary market pricing levels for the Preference Shares, in line with the commitments made in March 2018 only to take action on the Preference Shares after taking into account the fair market value of the Preference Shares at the relevant time; (ii) recent precedent transactions which have sought to cancel and/or repurchase preference shares issued by other companies; and (iii) the limited future utility of the Preference Shares to support the Group's capital structure, in order to ensure that the consideration offered under the Transactions seeks to compensate preference shareholders for the surrender of their shares.

Given the resolutions for the cancellation of each of the Aviva Preference Shares and the GA Preference Shares could be carried by the votes of the ordinary shareholders of Aviva and GA respectively alone, each of Aviva and GA will only proceed with the cancellation of its Preference Shares if it has received the support of its respective preference shareholders, voting on a standalone basis, under an advisory vote.

Each of Aviva and GA will therefore convene a separate meeting of their respective preference shareholders on an advisory basis to consider and approve the proposed cancellation of the Aviva Preference Shares and the GA Preference Shares respectively. These meetings are not required under Aviva's or GA's constitutional documents, the terms of the Preference Shares or the Companies Act 2006. However, neither Aviva nor GA will implement the proposed cancellation of its Preference Shares if it does not receive sufficient support for the proposals at the relevant advisory vote meeting.

In order to recognise the market value of the Preference Shares and provide the same return to preference shareholders as they would receive under the tender offer, each of Aviva and GA is also proposing to declare special dividends in favour of the preference shareholders. In respect of the Aviva Preference Shares this is explained in further detail in Annex B (Further information concerning the Cancellation) to this letter. Only the preference shareholders will receive the special dividends and, in relation to the GA Transaction, both Aviva and Undershaft Limited, GA's ordinary shareholders, intend to vote their ordinary shares in favour of the special resolutions approving such dividends for the GA Preference Shares if the GA preference shareholders have expressed their support for the proposed cancellation through the advisory vote.

To encourage preference shareholders to express their views on the cancellations and to take an active part in the Transactions, a voting fee of £0.02 per Preference Share (being 2 % of the nominal value of each Preference Share) is being offered to all preference shareholders who participate by: (i) appointing the Chair as their proxy to vote as instructed at the relevant advisory vote meeting and general meeting (irrespective of whether the vote is for or against the proposed cancellations); or (ii) validly tendering their Preference Shares, provided that the cancellations are implemented.

If insufficient support is received for the proposed cancellation of the Aviva Preference Shares, or the cancellation of the Aviva Preference Shares is not implemented for any reason, then (provided that the Tender Offer Resolution is passed at the General Meeting) those Aviva Preference Shares made available for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer will be purchased on the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum. In relation to GA, as Aviva and Undershaft Limited, GA's ordinary shareholders, intend to vote in favour of the resolution approving the proposed tender offer, any GA Preference Shares which are validly tendered pursuant to GA's proposed tender offer will be purchased on the terms set out in the GA tender offer memorandum in the event insufficient support is received for the proposed cancellation of the GA Preference Shares or if GA's proposed cancellation is not implemented for any reason.

Importantly, any Preference Shares repurchased by Aviva or GA will be cancelled as soon as reasonably practicable and will no longer be held by Aviva or GA following their purchase, thereby reducing the outstanding number (and liquidity) of the remaining Preference Shares.

Advisory Vote Meeting

Aviva will hold an Advisory Vote Meeting to secure the necessary support of preference shareholders on a standalone basis for the proposed Cancellation. Aviva has arranged for the preference shareholders to attend and participate at the Advisory Vote Meeting should they wish to do so, noting the implications on their eligibility for the Voting Fee, details of which are included in Annex D (Information on the Advisory Vote Meeting and shareholder actions) to this letter.

An advisory vote meeting is also being convened by GA to secure the necessary support from GA's preference shareholders for the proposed cancellation of the GA Preference Shares. If you are also a holder of GA Preference Shares, further information about these meetings can be found in the separate circulars that are being made available to you by GA. Please contact Computershare if you have not received these documents (please see <https://clients.dfkingltd.com/Aviva> for contact details).

Voting Arrangements for Advisory Vote Meeting

We would like to encourage all preference shareholders to take an active part in voting by submitting a Proxy Instruction appointing the Chair as proxy to vote as instructed at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the General Meeting. Preference shareholders who wish to vote in advance of the Advisory Vote Meeting can do so by: (i) completing and returning a Proxy Instruction to appoint the Chair as proxy to vote as instructed at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the General Meeting; or (ii) submitting a Tender Instruction to both tender their Aviva Preference Shares and appoint the Chair as their proxy to vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the Cancellation Resolution at the General Meeting.

Please note that preference shareholders who participate in the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting by any other means including by: (i) attending in person or via the Virtual Meeting Platform; or (ii) making other arrangements to be represented or vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting will not be entitled to the voting fee, irrespective of whether they vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution or the Cancellation Resolution. Further information regarding voting arrangements is detailed in Annex D (Information on the Advisory Vote Meeting and shareholder actions) to this letter.

Settlement

A full timeline for the Aviva Transaction is detailed on page 6 of the Shareholder Circular, but the expected settlement dates for the proposed cancellation and tender offer under the Transactions are set out in the following table:

Issuer	Coupon	Expected Tender Offer Settlement Date	Expected Cancellation Settlement Date
Aviva	8.375%	2 May 2025	22 May 2025
	8.750%
GA	7.875%		12 June 2025
	8.875%

Where do I obtain more information?

The Aviva Transaction is detailed and, by nature of there being more than one proposal in respect of the Aviva Preference Shares, requires careful consideration by our shareholders. We have sought to support you in this process through a variety of materials that have been made available to you along with this Advisory Vote Circular and Aviva has also appointed D.F. King to support preference shareholders with any questions or technical assistance they may require. Details of how to contact D.F. King are set out in Annex A (Contact details for further information and enquiries) to this letter.

We encourage you to read the questions and answers on the Advisory Vote Meeting in Part II (Questions and Answers on the Advisory Vote Meeting) which have been prepared to help you understand the Advisory Vote Meeting. When reading this Advisory Vote Circular in particular Part II (Questions and Answers on the Advisory Vote Meeting), please note that the Tender Offer Memorandum provides details relevant to you in relation to the Tender Offer and the Advisory Vote Meeting, and the Shareholder Circular provides important information in relation to the General Meeting and the Cancellation. This Advisory Vote Circular should therefore be read in conjunction with both documents.

If you also hold GA Preference Shares, detailed information on the GA Transaction can be found in the separate circulars that are being made available to you from GA. Please contact Computershare if you have not received these documents (please see <https://clients.dfkingltd.com/Aviva> for contact details).

Recommendation

The Board considers the cancellation of the Preference Shares (as well as the wider Transactions and the resolutions necessary to implement them) to be in the best interests of Aviva, GA and their respective preference shareholders. Aviva only intends to proceed with the Cancellation if it has support from its preference shareholders. Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends that preference shareholders vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution to be proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting. Similarly, in respect of the GA Transaction, both the Board and the GA board consider the proposed cancellation of the GA Preference Shares to be in the best interests of GA. Accordingly, Aviva together with Undershaft Limited (being GA's ordinary shareholders) intend to vote in favour of the resolutions proposed at GA's general meeting so as to enable the tender offer to proceed and, provided that the GA preference shareholders first vote in favour at the advisory vote meeting, to give effect to the cancellation of the GA Preference Shares.

Yours faithfully,

ANNEX B

FURTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE CANCELLATION

As described in the letter, Aviva is seeking to cancel the Aviva Preference Shares in their entirety. This Annex contains further information on the procedural elements of the Cancellation including details of the: (i) resolutions which will be presented to Aviva's shareholders to seek the necessary support to implement the Cancellation in accordance with the terms of the Aviva Preference Shares and Aviva's articles of association; (ii) amounts due to preference shareholders if the Cancellation is implemented; and (iii) conditions to implementing the Cancellation.

The resolution to implement the Cancellation (the "Cancellation Resolution") will be voted on by preference shareholders together with ordinary shareholders in accordance with the terms of the Aviva Preference Shares and Aviva's articles of association.

Given the Cancellation Resolution could be carried by the votes of the ordinary shareholders alone, Aviva only intends to proceed with the Cancellation if it has first received the support of its preference shareholders, voting on a standalone basis, under an advisory vote.

Advisory Vote

Aviva will convene an advisory meeting of the preference shareholders (the "Advisory Vote Meeting") prior to the General Meeting to consider and, if thought fit, pass a resolution on an advisory basis approving the Cancellation (the "Advisory Vote Resolution").

Although the Advisory Vote Resolution has no binding effect, nor is it required under the terms of the Aviva Preference Shares, Aviva's articles of association or the Companies Act 2006, the Cancellation Resolution to be voted on at the General Meeting will be conditional on the passing of the Advisory Vote Resolution.

If the Advisory Vote Resolution is not passed at the Advisory Vote Meeting, the Cancellation Resolution will not be capable of being passed and will be withdrawn from the General Meeting. In such a scenario, Aviva will proceed with the Tender Offer provided it receives sufficient support at the General Meeting, and any Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered by preference shareholders will be purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer. Further information on the Tender Offer can be found in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Special Dividends and Special Dividend Resolution

Under the terms of the Aviva Preference Shares, the Aviva Preference Shares can only be cancelled at their par value, being £1.00 per Aviva Preference Share. In order to recognise the market value of the Aviva Preference Shares and provide the same return to preference shareholders as they would receive under the Tender Offer (see Annex C (Further information concerning the Tender Offer) to this letter), a special dividend is proposed on each of: (i) the 8.375% Preference Shares; and (ii) the 8.750% Preference Shares (the "Special Dividends").

Although Aviva's articles of association permit Aviva to declare interim dividends without the need for approval by its shareholders, since the Special Dividends are being declared in favour of the preference shareholders only, Aviva is proposing a resolution, to be tabled as a special resolution, which will be voted on by the ordinary shareholders only, to approve the declaration of the Special Dividends (the "Special Dividend Resolution").

Inter-conditionality of the Capital Reduction Resolutions and other conditions for Cancellation

The Cancellation Resolution and the Special Dividend Resolution (together the "Capital Reduction Resolutions") are inter-conditional, meaning that the Cancellation may only proceed if the Special Dividends are approved (and vice versa). Since the Cancellation Resolution is conditional on preference shareholders passing the Advisory Vote Resolution first, if the Advisory Vote Resolution does not pass, the Capital Reduction Resolutions will be withdrawn, and the Cancellation will not be implemented.

For further details on other conditions to implementing the Cancellation, including the confirmation of the Cancellation by the Court, please refer to the Shareholder Circular and Tender Offer Memorandum.

If these conditions are met, all Aviva Preference Shares will be cancelled by Aviva as soon as reasonably practicable, and the preference shareholders will receive the applicable Cancellation Amount and Voting Fee (if applicable) on the settlement date for the Cancellation, being 22 May 2025.

Cancellation Amount

If both of the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed, Aviva intends to cancel all of the Aviva Preference Shares and return capital to preference shareholders in an amount equal to the amounts detailed in the following table:

Coupon	Cancellation Price		Accrued Dividend Amount on a Cancellation	Cancellation Amount (being the Cancellation Price together with the Accrued Dividend Amount)	Voting Fee (if applicable)
	Par Value	Special Dividend
8.375%	£1.00	£0.44	1.2p	£1.452	£0.02 per 8.375% Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 8.375% Preference Share)
8.750%	£1.00	£0.50	3.4p	£1.534	£0.02 per 8.750% Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each 8.750% Preference Share)

The Cancellation Price represents a premium of 13.2% and 10.5% to the quoted mid-market closing price of the 8.375% Preference Shares and the 8.750% Preference Shares respectively (being £1.27 per 8.375% Preference Share and £1.36 per 8.750% Preference Share on the Latest Practicable Date). The Accrued Dividend Amount is an indicative amount which is calculated on the basis that the settlement date for the Cancellation will fall on 22 May 2025. The Accrued Dividend Amount will change if the settlement date does not fall on 22 May 2025.

Voting Fee

In addition to the Cancellation Amount, if the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed and the Cancellation is implemented, preference shareholders who: (i) validly tender their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) by submitting a Tender Instruction; or (ii) submit a Proxy Instruction appointing the Chair as their proxy to vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the General Meeting (irrespective of whether the vote is for or against the Advisory Vote Resolution or the Cancellation Resolution) will (in each case pursuant to the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum) be eligible to receive a voting fee of £0.02 for each Aviva Preference Share (being 2% of the nominal value of each Aviva Preference Share) (the “Voting Fee”) validly tendered for purchase or in respect of which such Proxy Instruction is submitted. The Voting Fee will be voted on by Aviva’s ordinary shareholders as part of the Special Dividend Resolution.

Preference shareholders who participate in the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting by any other means, including by: (i) attending in person or via the Virtual Meeting Platform; or (ii) making other arrangements to be represented or vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting and/or the General Meeting shall not be entitled to the Voting Fee irrespective of whether they vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Cancellation Resolution.

Cancellation of Listing

If the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed and the Cancellation is implemented, Aviva intends to apply to the Financial Conduct Authority and London Stock Exchange respectively for the listing of the Aviva Preference Shares on the Official List to be cancelled and for the Aviva Preference Shares to cease to be admitted to trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange with effect from 15 May 2025.

If the Capital Reduction Resolutions do not pass or the Cancellation is not implemented for any reason, eligible preference shareholders are being invited to tender their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase on the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum (assuming the Tender Offer Resolution (as described in Annex C (Further information concerning the Tender Offer) to this letter) passes).

Further information on the Cancellation can be found in the Shareholder Circular.

ANNEX C

FURTHER INFORMATION CONCERNING THE TENDER OFFER

In parallel with the Cancellation, eligible preference shareholders are being invited to tender any or all of their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase on the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum which has been made available to eligible preference shareholders today. This Annex contains further information on the procedural elements of the Tender Offer including details of: (i) the amounts due to preference shareholders if the Tender Offer is implemented; (ii) the resolution which will be presented to Aviva's ordinary shareholders to seek the necessary support to implement the Tender Offer; and (iii) how the Tender Offer will be implemented.

Tender Offer Price

If a preference shareholder validly tenders their Aviva Preference Shares by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) and those Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer, those preference shareholders will receive an amount equal to the amounts detailed in the following table:

Coupon	Tender Offer Price	Accrued Dividend Amount on a Tender Offer	Tender Offer Consideration (being the Tender Offer Price together with the Accrued Dividend Amount)
8.375%	£1.44	0.8p	£1.448
8.750%	£1.50	2.9p	£1.529

The Tender Offer Price will be the same as the Cancellation Price for that Aviva Preference Share (see Annex B (Further information concerning the Cancellation) to this letter for more information) and represents a premium of 13.2% and 10.5% to the quoted mid-market closing price of the 8.375% Preference Shares and the 8.750% Preference Shares respectively (being £1.27 per 8.375% Preference Share and £1.36 per 8.750% Preference Share on the Latest Practicable Date). The Accrued Dividend Amount is an indicative amount which is calculated on the basis that the settlement date for the Tender Offer will fall on 2 May 2025. The Accrued Dividend Amount will change if the settlement date does not fall on 2 May 2025.

Tender Offer Resolution

Under the Companies Act 2006, a company is only authorised to make market purchases of its own shares if the purchase has first been authorised by a resolution of the company.

At Aviva's 2024 Annual General Meeting, resolutions were passed authorising Aviva to make market purchases of all of the Aviva Preference Shares but these contained restrictions on the maximum amount that Aviva can pay to acquire the Aviva Preference Shares. Since the Tender Offer Price exceeds the maximum amount approved at the 2024 Annual General Meeting, a separate special resolution authorising Aviva to make market purchases of all of the Aviva Preference Shares at the applicable Tender Offer Price is required to be voted on by the ordinary shareholders (and not the preference shareholders) of Aviva in order to enable the Tender Offer to proceed (the "Tender Offer Resolution").

How the Tender Offer will be implemented

Eligible preference shareholders are invited to tender (i.e. offer to sell) their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase under the Tender Offer Memorandum. Preference shareholders who have validly tendered their shares and are on Aviva's register of members at the Tender Offer Record Time are (subject to the offer and distribution restrictions in the Tender Offer Memorandum) eligible to participate in the Tender Offer.

Aviva has appointed Jefferies International Limited ("Jefferies") as offeror in connection with the Tender Offer and as a result, the Tender Offer is to be effected by Jefferies (acting as principal and not as agent, nominee or trustee of Aviva) purchasing the Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered. Any Aviva Preference Shares purchased by Jefferies pursuant to the Tender Offer will immediately be acquired by Aviva pursuant to an agreement entered into between Aviva and Jefferies and will subsequently be cancelled by Aviva as soon as reasonably practicable following the acquisition.

Provided that: (i) the Tender Offer Resolution is passed at the General Meeting; (ii) the preference shareholders validly tender their Aviva Preference Shares by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) in accordance with the procedures set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum; and (iii) those Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer, those preference shareholders who validly tendered their Aviva Preference Shares will receive the applicable Tender Offer Consideration on the settlement date for the Tender Offer, being 2 May 2025.

Neither Aviva nor Jefferies is under any obligation to accept, and nor are they liable for any non-acceptance of, any tender of Aviva Preference Shares for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer. However, if the Capital Reduction Resolutions are not passed and the Tender Offer Resolution is passed, it is intended that all validly tendered Aviva Preference Shares will be accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer, subject to the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer as set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Aviva will extend the settlement date for the Tender Offer following the General Meeting if both the Capital Reduction Resolutions and the Tender Offer Resolution are passed so as to ensure that, if the Cancellation is not implemented for any reason, the Tender Offer can still proceed and those Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered can still be purchased under the Tender Offer as soon as practicably possible.

If the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed and the Cancellation is implemented, Aviva will not proceed with the Tender Offer and instead intends to cancel all of the Aviva Preference Shares pursuant to the Cancellation as described in Annex B (Further information concerning the Cancellation) to this letter above.

Further information on the Tender Offer can be found in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

ANNEX D

INFORMATION ON THE ADVISORY VOTE MEETING AND SHAREHOLDER ACTIONS

The Advisory Vote Meeting will be held at Events @ No 6, 6 Alie Street, London, E1 8QT on 15 April 2025 at 11.00 a.m.

Resolution proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting

Set out at the end of this Advisory Vote Circular is a notice convening the Advisory Vote Meeting at which the Advisory Vote Resolution will be proposed. The Advisory Vote Resolution will be taken on a poll and will be voted on by the preference shareholders as if it were a special resolution of Aviva in which preference shareholders alone are entitled to vote. In order to pass, the Advisory Vote Resolution must be approved by at least 75% of all votes cast (in person or by proxy) by the preference shareholders at the Advisory Vote Meeting. Each preference shareholder will have four votes for every Preference Share that they hold. The quorum will be the same as that of the General Meeting and will require ten or more preference shareholders present and entitled to vote. For the purposes of the Advisory Vote Meeting only, each preference shareholder who appoints the Chair as proxy to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting shall be counted for the purposes of the quorum.

A vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution will be treated as a vote in favour of the Cancellation Resolution at the General Meeting.

More information about the Advisory Vote Meeting can be found in the question and answers sections of the Tender Offer Memorandum and the Shareholder Circular.

PART II

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON THE ADVISORY VOTE MEETING

The following summary of questions and answers has been prepared to help you understand the Advisory Vote Meeting. You should read the whole of this Advisory Vote Circular together with the Tender Offer Memorandum and the Shareholder Circular, and not rely solely on the summary questions and answers set out in the following section.

The Aviva Transaction

1. What is the Aviva Transaction?

The Aviva Transaction is a parallel cancellation and tender offer proposal in respect of the Aviva Preference Shares. The objective of the Aviva Transaction is to retire certain legacy instruments (namely the Aviva Preference Shares) which will no longer count as regulatory capital from 1 January 2026, whilst also providing liquidity to preference shareholders at a premium to market prices and improving the efficiency of the Group's balance sheet and effecting a simplification of its capital structure.

2. What are the Aviva Preference Shares?

The Aviva Preference Shares consist of the 8.375% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1.00 each and the 8.750% cumulative irredeemable preference shares of £1.00 each in the capital of Aviva. The Aviva Preference Shares were originally issued by Aviva (then known as Commercial Union plc) in 1992.

3. What is the Cancellation?

The Cancellation is a process by which Aviva proposes to cancel, extinguish and repay the Aviva Preference Shares in their entirety and pay the applicable Cancellation Amount to preference shareholders on the settlement date for the Cancellation being 22 May 2025.

The Cancellation must be approved by Aviva's ordinary and preference shareholders by a special resolution followed by a confirmation by the Court.

4. What is the Tender Offer?

The Tender Offer is a process by which eligible preference shareholders are invited to tender any or all of their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase on the terms set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum, which has been provided to eligible preference shareholders today. If a preference shareholder validly tenders their Aviva Preference Shares by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) and those Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer, those preference shareholders will receive the applicable Tender Offer Consideration on the settlement date for the Tender Offer being 2 May 2025.

5. Why have I been sent this document?

Given that the Cancellation Resolution could be carried by the votes of ordinary shareholders alone at the General Meeting, the Advisory Vote Meeting is being convened to give preference shareholders the opportunity to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Cancellation by passing the Advisory Vote Resolution. Aviva only intends to proceed with the Cancellation if it has support from preference shareholders on a standalone basis.

This Advisory Vote Circular has been made available to you to provide further information about the Aviva Transaction and to provide details on how to participate and vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

6. Why are you carrying out both the Cancellation and the Tender Offer?

Aviva's primary aim is to cancel all of the Aviva Preference Shares pursuant to the Cancellation. However, if the Capital Reduction Resolutions do not pass (including as a result of the Advisory Vote Resolution not passing) or if the Cancellation is not implemented for any reason but the Tender Offer Resolution does pass, Aviva wishes to maintain flexibility to retire those Aviva Preference Shares from preference shareholders who are willing to participate in the Tender Offer and who have validly tendered their Aviva Preference Shares, provided that certain conditions described further in Question 12 are met. The parallel structure provides Aviva with flexibility to pursue the Cancellation while preserving optionality with the Tender Offer if the Cancellation cannot be implemented.

7. What is the rationale for the Aviva Transaction?

Aviva wishes to cancel the Aviva Preference Shares because they will, as of 1 January 2026, no longer satisfy the purpose for which they were originally issued. The Aviva Preference Shares were issued in support of the requirement for financial firms to maintain a minimum level of capital reserves that were designed to absorb losses in times of financial stress while protecting policyholders and enabling the financial institution to continue as a viable business. Since the Aviva Preference Shares were issued in 1992, the rules which stipulate the requirements for eligible capital issuance have changed and, as a result, the Aviva Preference Shares will cease to provide any regulatory capital benefit for the Group with effect from 1 January 2026.

The Aviva Transaction, if implemented, will improve the efficiency of the Group's balance sheet as well as simplify the Group's capital structure. The Aviva Transaction will therefore be value enhancing to the Group as a whole and to both its preference shareholders and ordinary shareholders.

8. Why aren't the Aviva Transaction and the GA Transaction inter-conditional?

As the Aviva Transaction and GA Transaction are separate proposals which require separate votes from each of Aviva's and GA's respective shareholders, the Aviva Transaction and GA Transaction are independent from one another and the outcome of one is not conditional on the other.

9. Why is there a different settlement date for the Cancellation and the Tender Offer?

As explained further in Question 11, a number of steps need to be undertaken to give effect to the Cancellation including hearings held by the Court and a subsequent application for the de-listing and suspension of trading of the Aviva Preference Shares. These steps are not required in connection with the settlement of the Tender Offer. Aviva has therefore determined that the consideration proposed under each of the Cancellation and Tender Offer should be paid as soon as reasonably practicable following completion of the relevant process which is why the settlement date for the Tender Offer is expected to occur before the settlement date for the Cancellation, save in circumstances where the Cancellation receives the support of shareholders but is not subsequently implemented for any reason, in which case Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered will still be accepted for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer, with settlement occurring after the expected settlement date for the Cancellation.

In addition, the settlement dates for a cancellation differ between the Aviva Transaction and GA Transaction as a notice period of 21 days is required to be given to creditors as part of the Court process in Scotland - a step which is not required for the Court process to be undertaken by Aviva in England. Rather than aligning the settlement dates for a cancellation on both the Aviva Transaction and GA Transaction, the Group has determined that the consideration due to preference shareholders should be paid as soon as reasonably practicable following completion of the relevant Court process which is why the cancellation settlement date in the Aviva Transaction takes place earlier than in the GA Transaction.

10. Why is there a difference between the amount I could receive under the Cancellation and the Tender Offer?

The Cancellation Price in respect of a given Aviva Preference Share has been calculated such that it will be the same as the Tender Offer Price for that Aviva Preference Share. The only differences in the amounts preference shareholders may receive under the Cancellation and the Tender Offer are: (i) the Voting Fee (if the preference shareholder is eligible for such Voting Fee) if the Cancellation is implemented; and (ii) the amount determined to be payable as the Accrued Dividend Amount (with settlement taking place at a later date under the Cancellation than under the Tender Offer as explained in Question 9). It is important to note that, in the event of a Cancellation, if a preference shareholder does not submit a valid Tender Instruction or a Proxy Instruction appointing the Chair as their proxy to vote as instructed, they will not be eligible to receive the Voting Fee.

11. How will the Cancellation be implemented?

The process and requirements for the Cancellation are primarily determined by the Companies Act 2006 and Aviva's articles of association. This involves, and is conditional on, the following steps taking place in the following order:

- a) The passing of the Advisory Vote Resolution by the preference shareholders at the Advisory Meeting – although not required by either the Companies Act 2006 or Aviva's articles of association, preference shareholders are being asked to consider and vote on the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Meeting. The Cancellation Resolution will only be put to a vote at the General Meeting if preference shareholders approve the Advisory Vote Resolution.
- b) The passing of the Cancellation Resolution (by both ordinary and preference shareholders) and Special Dividend Resolution (by ordinary shareholders) as special resolutions at the General Meeting – shareholders are being asked to consider and vote on the Cancellation Resolution and Special Dividend Resolution at the General Meeting.
- c) The making of an order by the Court confirming the Cancellation – if the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed as special resolutions, Aviva intends to take the necessary steps to effect the Cancellation as soon as reasonably practicable after the General Meeting.
- d) The registration of the Court order confirming the Cancellation and a statement of capital with the Registrar of Companies – Aviva intends to register the Court order and a statement of capital with the Registrar of Companies shortly after (and provided that) the Court order confirming the Cancellation is made.

For further information on the Court process, the impact the Cancellation will have on Aviva and the expected timeline of the Cancellation, please refer to the Shareholder Circular and Tender Offer Memorandum.

12. How will the Tender Offer be implemented?

In order to participate in the Tender Offer and be eligible for the Tender Offer Consideration, preference shareholders must validly tender their Aviva Preference Shares in accordance with the procedures set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Preference shareholders are invited to tender (i.e. offer to sell) any or all of their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer Memorandum. Preference shareholders are entitled, but not required, to participate in the Tender Offer.

Aviva has appointed Jefferies as offeror in connection with the Tender Offer and has entered into the Tender Offer Agreement with Jefferies. As a result, the Tender Offer is to be effected by Jefferies (acting as principal and not as agent, nominee or trustee of Aviva) purchasing the Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered. To facilitate the Tender Offer, the Tender Offer Agreement contains (a) a put option granted by Aviva which, on exercise by Jefferies, requires Aviva to purchase any Aviva Preference Shares acquired pursuant to the Tender Offer from Jefferies at the Tender Offer Price; and (b) a call option granted by Jefferies which, on exercise by Aviva, requires Jefferies to sell any Aviva Preference Shares which have been acquired pursuant to the Tender Offer to the Issuer at the Tender Offer Price.

Any Aviva Preference Shares purchased by Aviva pursuant to the Tender Offer Agreement will subsequently be cancelled by Aviva as soon as reasonably practicable following the acquisition.

The Tender Offer is conditional on the passing of the Tender Offer Resolution by the ordinary shareholders as a special resolution at the General Meeting. Provided that: (i) the Tender Offer Resolution is passed at the General Meeting; (ii) the preference shareholders validly tender their Aviva Preference Shares by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) in accordance with the procedures set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum; and (iii) those Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer, those preference shareholders who have validly tendered their Aviva Preference Shares will receive the applicable Tender Offer Consideration on the settlement date for the Tender Offer being 2 May 2025. If the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed and the Cancellation is implemented, Aviva will not proceed with the Tender Offer and Aviva instead intends to cancel all of the Aviva Preference Shares pursuant to the Cancellation.

Neither Aviva nor Jefferies is under any obligation to accept, nor are they liable for any non-acceptance of, any tender of Aviva Preference Shares for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer. However, if the Capital Reduction Resolutions are not passed and the Tender Offer Resolution is passed, it is intended that all validly tendered Aviva Preference Shares will be accepted for purchase under the Tender Offer subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Tender Offer Memorandum.

Aviva will extend the settlement date for the Tender Offer following the General Meeting if both the Capital Reduction Resolutions and Tender Offer Resolution are passed so as to ensure that if the Cancellation is not implemented for any reason (including if the Court does not sanction the Cancellation) the Tender Offer can still proceed and those Aviva Preference Shares which have been validly tendered can still be purchased under the Tender Offer as soon as practicably possible. In such circumstances, any extension of the settlement date for the Tender Offer will be announced by Aviva as soon as reasonably practicable. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Capital Reduction Resolutions and Tender Offer Resolution are passed, validly tendered Aviva Preference Shares will not be returned to preference shareholders, and preference shareholders will not be able to trade their validly tendered Aviva Preference Shares prior to the effective date of Cancellation.

For further information on the expected timeline of the Tender Offer please refer to the Shareholder Circular and Tender Offer Memorandum.

13. Is any cash or capital being returned to preference shareholders as part of the Aviva Transaction?

Aviva is committed to providing preference shareholders with a return of value in connection with the cancellation or purchase of the Aviva Preference Shares that recognises the fair market value of the Aviva Preference Shares today.

Under the Terms of the Aviva Preference Shares, Aviva may only cancel the Aviva Preference Shares at their par value of £1. If the Capital Reduction Resolutions and the Advisory Vote Resolution are passed, in addition to the par value of the Aviva Preference Shares, all preference shareholders will receive the Special Dividends declared in respect of the Aviva Preference Shares (being £0.44 for each 8.375% Preference Share and £0.50 for each 8.750% Preference Share), the applicable Accrued Dividend Amount and Voting Fee (if applicable) which amounts to an aggregate sum of £1.472 for each 8.375% Preference Share and £1.554 for each 8.750% Preference Share.

If a preference shareholder validly tenders their Aviva Preference Shares by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) and those Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the Tender Offer, preference shareholder will receive the Tender Offer Price for each Aviva Preference Share so purchased (being an amount equal to: (i) £1.44 for each 8.375% Preference Share so purchased; and (ii) £1.50 for each 8.750% Preference Share so purchased), plus the applicable Accrued Dividend Amount.

The Tender Offer Price in respect of a given Aviva Preference Share has been calculated such that it will be the same as the Cancellation Price for that Aviva Preference Share.

Advisory Vote Resolution

14. Who is eligible to vote on the Advisory Vote Resolution?

Only preference shareholders who are on Aviva's register of members at 6.00 p.m. on 11 April 2025 are eligible to vote or to instruct an authorised representative to vote on their behalf on the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

15. What happens if I vote for or against the Advisory Vote Resolution?

Although the Advisory Vote Resolution has no binding effect nor is it required under the Terms of the Aviva Preference Shares, Aviva's articles of association or the Companies Act 2006, Aviva has provided that the Cancellation Resolution proposed at the General Meeting will be conditional on the passing of the Advisory Vote Resolution. This means that if the Advisory Vote Resolution is not passed at the Advisory Vote Meeting, the Cancellation Resolution will not be capable of being passed and will be withdrawn from the General Meeting.

If you submit a Tender Instruction or a Proxy Instruction that includes an instruction to appoint the Chair or an individual(s) of your choice as proxy to vote as instructed (or withhold such vote) at the Advisory Vote Meeting, then you will not need to do anything further in order for your vote to count at the General Meeting (unless you are also an ordinary shareholder of Aviva). If you are also an ordinary shareholder of Aviva, please refer to "Ways in which you can attend and vote" in the Shareholder Circular.

16. How does the Board recommend I vote?

The Board considers the Cancellation (as well as the wider Aviva Transaction and the resolutions necessary to implement the Aviva Transaction) to be in the best interests of Aviva, the Group and the preference shareholders. Aviva only intends to proceed with the Cancellation if it has support from preference shareholders. Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends that preference shareholders vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution to be proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

The Terms of the Aviva Preference Shares provide that, where the preference shareholders are entitled to vote at a general meeting of Aviva and the vote is to be taken on a poll, each preference shareholder has one vote in respect of each £0.25 of Aviva Preference Share nominal value registered in their name. As Aviva intends to treat the Advisory Vote Resolution as if it were a special resolution of Aviva in which preference shareholders alone would be entitled to vote, and each Aviva Preference Share has a nominal value of £1.00, each preference shareholder will have four votes for each Aviva Preference Share they hold in respect of a poll vote on the Advisory Vote Resolution.

18. How do I vote on the Advisory Vote Resolution?

Whether or not you intend to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting in person (physically or electronically), preference shareholders are encouraged to vote in advance of the Advisory Vote Meeting and can do so through one of the following methods:

Type of shareholder	Method of voting in advance	Method of submission
Preference shareholder (certificated)	Preference Shareholder Form of Proxy and Tender Instruction to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">tender any number of Aviva Preference Shares (which also constitutes an instruction to appoint the Chair to vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Cancellation Resolution); orappoint the Chair or an individual of the preference shareholder's choice to vote as instructed without tendering any Aviva Preference Shares	By post to Computershare Investor Services PLC, at The Pavilions, Bridgwater Road, Bristol, BS99 6AH
Preference shareholder (CREST)	TTE Instruction - to tender any number of Aviva Preference Shares (which also constitutes an instruction to appoint the Chair to vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Cancellation Resolution) Preference Shareholder Form of Proxy - to appoint the Chair or an individual of the preference shareholder's choice to vote as instructed without tendering any Aviva Preference Shares	Online via the CREST system or by post (Preference Shareholder Form of Proxy only) to Computershare Investor Services PLC, at The Pavilions, Bridgwater Road, Bristol, BS99 6AH

Preference shareholders can vote in advance by submitting a Tender Instruction to both tender their Aviva Preference Shares and appoint the Chair as their proxy to vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Vote Meeting and the Cancellation Resolution at the General Meeting. Preference shareholders can also submit a Proxy Instruction to appoint a proxy to vote as instructed at the Advisory Vote Meeting and General Meeting without tendering their Aviva Preference Shares.

Preference shareholders who hold their shares in CREST can appoint a proxy and provide a voting instruction by electronic means through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service. Further details are set out in the notes to the Notice of Advisory Vote Meeting.

You should complete your instruction as soon as possible but, in any event, so as to be received no later than 12 noon on 11 April 2025 (or, if the General Meeting is adjourned, 48 hours (excluding any non-Business Days) before the time of the adjourned General Meeting).

Completion and return of a Tender Instruction or Proxy Instruction will not preclude you from attending and voting in person (physically or electronically) at the Advisory Vote Meeting if you wish to do so and are so entitled. However, please note that you will no longer be eligible to receive the Voting Fee should you attend, even if you vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

19. How do I join the Advisory Vote Meeting and vote electronically?

If you are planning to attend electronically, you should refer to pages 32 to 36 of this Advisory Vote Circular, where you will find details of the electronic attendance arrangements, including how to vote online and ask questions during the Advisory Vote Meeting using the Computershare system. If you are unable to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting but would like to ask a question relating to the business of the Advisory Vote Meeting, or would like to follow up on any answers given to a question at the Advisory Vote Meeting, please send your question by email to aviva.shareholders@aviva.com, and we will endeavour to provide you with a response as soon as possible.

20. What are the possible outcomes at the Advisory Vote Meeting and General Meeting?

The Cancellation Resolution is conditional on preference shareholders first passing the Advisory Vote Resolution. If the Advisory Vote Resolution does not pass, neither of the Capital Reduction Resolutions is capable of passing and these resolutions will therefore be withdrawn from the General Meeting, and the Cancellation will not be implemented.

The Cancellation Resolution and the Special Dividend Resolution are both necessary to implement the Cancellation and are inter-conditional. This means that the Cancellation may only proceed if the Special Dividend is approved (and vice versa).

If the Capital Reduction Resolutions do not pass for any reason (including that the Advisory Vote Resolution is not passed), but the Tender Offer Resolution passes, then Aviva wishes to maintain flexibility to retire those Aviva Preference Shares from preference shareholders who are willing to participate in the Tender Offer and who validly tender their Aviva Preference Shares.

If the Tender Offer Resolution does not pass at the General Meeting, the Tender Offer will not proceed.

A summary of the possible outcomes and conditions to be satisfied are set out in the following table:

Possible Outcome	Does the Advisory Vote Resolution need to be approved?	Does the Cancellation Resolution need to be approved?	Does the Special Dividend Resolution need to be approved?	Does the Tender Offer Resolution need to be approved?
Cancellation	Yes (preference shareholders only)	Yes (ordinary and preference shareholders)	Yes (ordinary shareholders only)	No
Tender Offer	No	No	No	Yes (ordinary shareholders only)

21. In what circumstances will I receive the Voting Fee?

If the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed and the Cancellation is implemented, preference shareholders who: (i) validly tendered their Aviva Preference Shares for purchase pursuant to the Tender Offer by the relevant expiration deadline (as specified in the Tender Offer Memorandum) by submitting a Tender Instruction; or (ii) submitted a Proxy Instruction appointing the Chair as their proxy to vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting and General Meeting (irrespective of whether the vote is for or against the Advisory Vote Resolution and Cancellation Resolution) will receive the Voting Fee on the settlement date for the Cancellation being 22 May 2025.

Preference shareholders who participate in the Advisory Vote Meeting or the General Meeting by any other means including by: (i) attending in person or via the Virtual Meeting Platform; or (ii) making other arrangements to be represented or vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting and/or the General Meeting shall not be entitled to the Voting Fee irrespective of whether they vote in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution and Cancellation Resolution.

Please note that a vote withheld is not a vote in law. Preference shareholders who instruct the Chair as proxy to withhold their vote shall not be entitled to the Voting Fee.

For further details on the Voting Fee, Tender Instruction and Proxy Instruction please refer to the Tender Offer Memorandum and the Shareholder Circular.

22. Why am I not entitled to the Voting Fee if I attend the Meetings in my capacity as a preference shareholder?

As explained in Question 21, the Voting Fee is being offered to those preference shareholders who submit a Tender Instruction or a Proxy Instruction which appoints the Chair as proxy to vote as instructed by the preference shareholder at the Advisory Vote Meeting and General Meeting.

Aviva has structured the Voting Fee in this way to encourage and maximise early participation in the voting process by voting in advance of the Meetings. To encourage early participation in this way, the Voting Fee is also being offered to preference shareholders regardless of how they vote.

23. What is the minimum threshold for passing the Advisory Vote Resolution proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting?

There are two minimum thresholds for passing the Advisory Vote Resolution proposed at the Advisory Vote Meeting which relate to: (i) the required number of preference shareholders present and entitled to vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting; and (ii) the required number of votes in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution. These have been set by Aviva to align with the threshold required for a special resolution of Aviva.

As set out in Aviva's articles of association, the quorum for the General Meeting is ten shareholders present and entitled to vote at the General Meeting. The quorum for the Advisory Vote Meeting is set at the same level required for the General Meeting namely ten preference shareholders present and entitled to vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting. For the purposes of the Advisory Vote Meeting only, each preference shareholder who appoints the Chair as proxy to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting shall be counted for the purposes of the quorum.

On a poll, every preference shareholder who is present in person or via the Virtual Meeting Platform or by proxy at the Advisory Vote Meeting will have one vote in respect of each £0.25 of Aviva Preference Share nominal value registered in their name. As Aviva intends to treat the Advisory Vote Resolution as if it were a special resolution of Aviva in which preference shareholders alone would be entitled to vote, and each Aviva Preference Share has a nominal value of £1.00, each preference shareholder will have four votes for each Aviva Preference Share they hold.

The requisite threshold for passing the Advisory Vote Resolutions is at least 75% of all votes cast (in person or by proxy) by the preference shareholders present and voting at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

24. Why is there only one vote in respect of the Cancellation instead of two separate votes for each series of the Aviva Preference Shares?

Aviva is offering preference shareholders an advisory vote which is not required by the Terms of the Aviva Preference Shares and its objective is to obtain an indication of support from the preference shareholders on the proposed Cancellation. As Aviva's primary aim is to cancel all of the Aviva Preference Shares in their entirety rather than cancel a single or a specific series, Aviva believes that a single vote in respect of the Aviva Preference Shares is the most practical and meaningful method of gauging support for the Cancellation rather than holding a separate vote for each series of Aviva Preference Shares. A single vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting is also consistent with the manner in which preference shareholders will vote on the Cancellation Resolution at the General Meeting (i.e. together).

25. What happens if I fail to vote?

Although preference shareholders are encouraged to vote on the Advisory Vote Resolution, preference shareholders are not under an obligation to do so.

The Advisory Vote Resolution will only pass if a majority of not less than 75% of the votes cast by the preference shareholders present and voting at the Advisory Vote Meeting (whether personally or via a representative and whether physically or electronically) are in favour of the Advisory Vote Resolution. If you do not vote, your Aviva Preference Shares will not be included in the calculation of whether the 75% threshold has been met.

26. Will I continue to receive dividend payments if I participate in the Tender Offer or the Cancellation is implemented?

If you participate in the Tender Offer and your Aviva Preference Shares are purchased pursuant to the terms of the Tender Offer Memorandum, or if the Advisory Vote Resolution and the Capital Reduction Resolutions are passed, and the Cancellation is implemented, you will not be eligible for any dividends or payment of any other amount in respect of your Aviva Preference Shares following the settlement date for the Cancellation or the Tender Offer (whichever is applicable). For the avoidance of doubt, no dividend or payment will be made to preference shareholders prior to the settlement date for the Cancellation or the Tender Offer (as applicable). Preference shareholders who:

- a) receive the Tender Offer Consideration for their tendered preference shares that are accepted in the Tender Offer, will not be eligible for any dividends or payment of any other amount in respect of those Preference Shares following the settlement date for the Tender Offer; and
- b) receive the Cancellation Amount in connection with the Cancellation, will not be eligible for any dividends or payment of any other amount in respect of your Preference Shares following the settlement date for the Cancellation.

Please note that the Tender Offer Consideration and the Cancellation Amount include the Accrued Dividend Amount, as further described in Question 13.

27. Who do I contact if I have further questions?

If you have any further questions about the Cancellation, the Aviva Transaction, the Advisory Vote Resolution or the Advisory Vote Meeting, please see page 11 of this Advisory Vote Circular for the contact details of D.F. King who will be able to assist with your queries or any technical assistance you may require.

Website

A copy of this Notice of Advisory Vote Meeting, and other information related to the Advisory Vote Meeting can be found at <https://clients.dfkingltd.com/Aviva>.

2. Voting and proxy arrangements

There are a variety of ways in which a preference shareholder can provide a voting instruction regarding the Advisory Vote Resolution to be put to the Advisory Vote Meeting.

Voting at the Advisory Vote Meeting

Voting on the Advisory Vote Resolution will be taken on a poll to reflect the number of Aviva Preference Shares held by a preference shareholder and each preference shareholder will have four votes for each Aviva Preference Share they hold. This reflects Aviva's established practice, and the Board considers that a poll is the best way of representing the views of as many preference shareholders as possible in the voting process.

Preference shareholders who attend the Advisory Vote Meeting electronically will be able to vote online at the Advisory Vote Meeting using the Advisory Vote Meeting website, meetnow.global/AVVADV2025. Further details can be found in the 'About the Advisory Vote Meeting' section.

Giving your voting instruction in advance of the Advisory Vote Meeting

Preference shareholders are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise any or all of their rights to attend, speak and vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting. A proxy need not be a preference shareholder of Aviva. A preference shareholder may appoint more than one proxy, provided that each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to different Aviva Preference Shares.

Appointing a proxy in advance of the Advisory Vote Meeting will not prevent preference shareholders from subsequently attending the Advisory Vote Meeting physically or electronically and voting at the Advisory Vote Meeting.

If you are unable to attend the Advisory Vote Meeting or wish to register your proxy appointment/voting instruction now, you can do so as follows:

By post

Preference shareholders can complete the relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form enclosed with hard copies of the Shareholder Circular and return it to Aviva's Receiving Agent and Registrar, Computershare. A pre-paid envelope addressed to Computershare is enclosed with hard copies of the Shareholder Circular for this purpose. A postage stamp is not required if posted in the United Kingdom.

Please ensure that you sign the relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form and initial any alterations. If someone other than you signs the Preference Shareholder Paper Form, it must be returned with either the letter of authority, power of attorney or a certified copy of the power of attorney authorising them to sign on your behalf. If the holder is a corporation, the Preference Shareholder Paper Form must be signed either under seal or under the hand of a duly authorised officer or attorney of that company, stating their capacity.

By CREST

CREST members who wish to appoint a proxy or proxies through the CREST electronic proxy appointment service may do so for the General Meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof by using the procedures described in the CREST Manual (available by logging on at www.euroclear.com). CREST personal members or other CREST sponsored members, and those CREST members who have appointed a voting service provider(s), should refer to their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s), who will be able to take the appropriate action on their behalf.

In order for a proxy appointment or instruction made using the CREST service to be valid, the appropriate CREST Proxy Instruction must be properly authenticated in accordance with Euroclear's specifications and must contain the information required for such instructions, as described in the CREST Manual. The message, regardless of whether it constitutes the appointment of a proxy or an amendment to the instruction given to a previously appointed proxy must, in order to be valid, be transmitted so as to be received by Computershare Investor Services PLC (ID 3RA50) by 12 noon on 11 April 2025. For this purpose, the time of receipt will be taken to be the time (as determined by the time stamp applied to the message by the CREST Application Host) from which Computershare is able to retrieve the message by enquiry to CREST in the manner prescribed by CREST.

After this time any change of instructions to proxies appointed through CREST should be communicated to the appointee through other means.

CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service provider(s) should note that Euroclear does not make available special procedures in CREST for any particular messages. Normal system timings and limitations will therefore apply in relation to the input of CREST Proxy Instructions. It is the responsibility of the CREST member concerned to take (or, if the CREST member is a CREST personal member or sponsored member or has appointed a voting service provider(s), to procure that their CREST sponsor or voting service provider(s) take(s)) such action as shall be necessary to ensure that a message is transmitted by means of the CREST system by any particular time. CREST members and, where applicable, their CREST sponsors or voting service provider(s) are referred, in particular, to those sections of the CREST Manual concerning practical limitations of the CREST system and timings.

Aviva may treat as invalid a CREST Proxy Instruction in the circumstances set out in Regulation 35(5)(a) of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001.

Proximity voting

If you are an institutional investor you may also be able to appoint a proxy electronically via the Proximity platform, a process which has been agreed by Aviva and approved by the Receiving Agent and Registrar. For further information regarding Proximity, please go to www.proximity.io. Your proxy must be lodged by 12 noon on 11 April 2025 in order to be considered valid. Before you can appoint a proxy via this process you will need to have agreed to Proximity's associated terms and conditions. It is important that you read these carefully as you will be bound by them and they will govern the electronic appointment of your proxy.

Vote withheld

Aviva has included on the relevant Preference Shareholder Paper Form a 'Vote withheld' option in order for preference shareholders to abstain on any particular resolution. However, please note that a 'Vote withheld' is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of votes 'For' or 'Against' the relevant resolution.

Proxy appointments to be received by Computershare

Proxy Instructions must be received by Computershare by no later than 12 noon on 11 April 2025. Shareholders must inform Computershare in writing of any termination of the authority of a proxy.

The results of the polls

The results of the polls will be announced to the London Stock Exchange as soon as practicable following the conclusion of the Advisory Vote Meeting and the General Meeting and will also be published on Aviva's website at <https://www.aviva.com/investors/aviva-regulatory-announcements>.

Indirect investor rights

A person who is not a shareholder of Aviva but has been nominated by a preference shareholder to enjoy information rights in accordance with section 146 of the Companies Act 2006 (a "Nominated Person") does not have a right to appoint a proxy; however, Nominated Persons may have a right under an agreement with the preference shareholder to be appointed (or to have someone else appointed) as a proxy for the Advisory Vote Meeting.

Alternatively, if Nominated Persons do not have such a right, or do not wish to exercise it, they may have a right under an agreement with the relevant preference shareholder to give instructions as to the exercise of voting rights. Nominated Persons are reminded that they should contact the registered holder of their Aviva Preference Shares (and not Aviva) on matters relating to their investment in Aviva.

Corporations

Any corporation which is a member can appoint one or more corporate representatives who may exercise on its behalf all of the same powers as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member, provided that multiple corporate representatives do not vote in relation to the same Aviva Preference Shares.

Entitlement to vote

Aviva specifies that only those preference shareholders registered on the register of members of Aviva at 6.00 p.m. on 11 April 2025 shall be entitled to attend or vote at the Advisory Vote Meeting in respect of the number of Aviva Preference Shares registered in their name at that time or, in the event of an adjournment of the General Meeting, preference shareholders on the register of members at 6.00 p.m. on the date (excluding any non-Business Days) that is two days before the adjourned General Meeting. Voting online during the Advisory Vote Meeting

Once the Advisory Vote Resolution has been proposed, the Advisory Vote Resolution will appear along with the voting options available. Select the option that corresponds with how you wish to vote, "FOR", "AGAINST" or "WITHHELD". Once you have selected your choice, the option will change colour and a confirmation message will appear to indicate your vote has been cast and received – there is no submit button. If you make a mistake or wish to change your vote, select "Change your vote" and simply select the correct choice, if you wish to "cancel" your vote, select the "Clear Vote" button. You will be able to do this at any time whilst the poll remains open and before the Chair announces its closure at the end of the Meeting.
